The former Lady Westminster

With immediate effect, The Lady Westminster Chess Club will be playing home games at the Acocks Green Bowling Alley, Westley Road, Acocks Green. Please remember to change your shoes before starting white's clock.

Tony Miles (1955-2001)

By now I expect that everyone will have read at least one obituary of Tony Miles, who was found dead at home on 12th November.

There is nothing more to be said here, except that he was one of the most important English players ever to have emerged; quite possibly the most important.

Clement Caldwell (1955-2001)

Clement joined Stourbridge in the 1996/97 season and played regularly in the Birmingham, Dudley and Wolverhampton Leagues.

In his youth he had also played for Ayr Academy in a team which reached the Final of the Sunday Times National Schools Competition.

Those who knew Clement will remember him as a quiet, thoughtful man who loved the game. It was a counterpart to his hectic life as a teacher.

He is survived by a widow and two teenage children. Clement died in October only a few months after his cancer was diagnosed.

Ian Howarth

Henry Hughes (1943-2001)

"H", as he liked to be known, was found dead at home on 21st November 2001. He was president of the West Midlands Municipal Chess Club and also a member of Lucas & BS Chess Club. He had been in poor health for some years.

Henry was a member of North Birmingham CC when your Editor joined it in 1981. Being what we would now call 'streetwise', he once or twice came to the club with bruised knuckles. Some ten years ago, dissatisfied with life on the factory floor, he became a mature student and moved to Worcester for a time.

On his return he took his enthusiasm and combative style to West Midlands Municipal, and from recent remarks made by him it is apparent that he had a clear idea of his own mortality. In his presidential address to the WMM Club in May 2001 he said: -

"We are on this planet for a short time and we should give what we can to chess".
