

It's just two fools
Who know the rules

from "Loving on the Never-Never"
from Blood Brothers by Willy Russell

Interestingly - or not, as you may think - the French word for bishop is "fou". This means 'fool' or 'jester', as in Jester Song at Twilight. And that takes us to Send in the Clowns from A Little Night Music. So has Willy Russell plagiarised Stephen Sondheim? While the lawyers are trying to sort that one out, here are some League Tables.

LEAGUE ANNUAL GENERAL AND MANAGEMENT MEETINGS

I have a fax from Dave Rowe, which I cannot reproduce in full because of lack of space, but the pith and gist of which is as follows.

May 2004 may seem a long way off, but nominations for next year's officers must be submitted by 31st March 2004. If any of the existing officers wish to stand down will they please let Dave know asap. If the League so wishes, Dave will remain as Hon Gen Sec for 2004/05 (by which time he will have completed 20 seasons as a League official), but he is looking to call it a day after that. He thinks that it would be a good idea for his successor to act as his assistant for 2004/05.

We have failed to hold a Management meeting in January, as we should have done, but if one had taken place it would have been no more than a formality. Dave intends to call one in March with plenty of notice and for the future is proposing meetings in March, May, August and November 2004, and the same for 2005 except that the March meeting would be brought forward to February. The League could decide that three Management meetings a year were enough, but that would require an amendment to the Constitution. If it is felt that Dave has breached the Constitution this season by calling only three meetings he will consider his position untenable and resign forthwith if not sooner.

Apparently there are some proposed Rule changes which I should be able to advertise in the next Bulletin.

Can I add my own thought, which I have voiced previously. The Hon Gen Sec's job is onerous in the extreme. It is, however, divisible into a number of different parts, and - I would have thought - could easily be split up amongst a team of Assistant Hon Gen Secs reporting to the gentleman (or lady) nominally filling that post. That might make it easier to recruit willing hands.

- Editor.
