

"On the western outskirts of the city is a large park featuring ponds, fountains, picnic facilities and a forest cemetery. Many famous Jzerbo residents have been buried in this pine forest, including writer Vorj Dragcot, chess champion Illjia Ggrezel and the great stage actor Hernj Hkorml, who later had to be dug up after forensic tests revealed that he was not dead but simply in the middle of a dramatic pause."

The question of whether Birmingham University are entering teams in the League this year was still "up in the air" when the Hon. Gen. Sec. went on holiday two weeks ago.

THOSE RULE CHANGES - PART TWO

Further to what I wrote in the last Bulletin (see page 10) about mobile phones and recording one's moves, several people have pointed out to me that Article 8.1 of the Laws of Chess specifically forbids the writing down of one's move before making it on the board.

This is true. All that stuff about "making notes" which I put in the last Bulletin is neither here nor there. The situation seems to be that - prior to the change - the BCF's Chief Arbiter had said that he would warn players that the practice of writing down moves before playing them constituted the making of notes and was unacceptable. With the adoption of 8.1, of course, that argument is no longer necessary.

Players should note that there is a case currently before the Rules Committee involving the writing down of a move before playing it, and also one which involves a non-player's mobile going off (twice). I shall report on these matters as soon as I am in a position to do so.
