Any entry fees already paid will be refunded. Your Editor Blunders Players in Division 2 who received or read a postal copy of Bulletin 5 last month may have felt a little puzzled when they looked at match results 238 and 239. The results of two entirely mythical matches were reported there! The problem stemmed from my having misinterpreted the the abbreviation 'BM' on two match cards as signifying 'Boldmere' when in fact the team in question was 'Birmingham'. Normally I correct such mistakes when I see the player names, but as both matches were 'walk-overs' no player names were mentioned so the error got through. This led to the Div 2 League Tables also being inaccurate. Apologies to everyone affected.

County Chess (gosh its a complicated system)!

In the Open Championship Warwickshire have completed their clean sweep in the Midlands (Div 1) section with a 9-7 win over Greater Manchester. Staffordshire were runners-up after a 4 ½ – 11 ½ victory over Shropshire. Warwickshire now take on Kent in the Quarter-finals of the National stage of the competition whilst Staffordshire must win another preliminary to reach the Quarters. In Div 2 Worcestershire escaped bottom place with a 5 – 11 win over Lincolnshire.

In the Under 150s Warwickshire again head the MCCU table following An 11 ½ – 4 ½ rout of Nottinghamshire. Staffordshire crushed Leicestershire 13 – 3 to take second place. Warwickshire go directly into the National Quarter-finals whilst Staffs. must play again in an eliminator.

In the Under 125s Warwickshire topped the "Western" section of the Midlands zone and then went on to smash Lincolnshire 13-3 to reach the Midlands overall final. There they will play Nottinghamshire who squeaked a technical victory over Worcestershire after drawing with them 8 – 8.across the board.

The Warwickshire Under 100s team are assured of a place in the Nationals, but after a 7 ½ – 4 ½ loss to Staffs Terriers are now neck-and-neck with Nottinghamshire for the honour of becoming Midlands Champions. Worcestershire, Staffs Bulldogs, and Staffs Terriers are all still in the running for the 3rd spot in the Nationals.
